Neil mixes up his set depending on the venue and the audience. Long experience has created an extremely large and varied back catalogue of material to draw from. His style mixes contemporary acoustic rock, country and blues songs with traditional Scottish and Irish folk tunes and songs. In addition the audience is introduced to his own songs and stories which are mixed in throughout the set. Neil sings and entertains on a mixture of instruments including Guitar, Bouzouki, Mandolin, Tenor banjo and Whistle which further adds interest to his act.
